

Dear Friends,

This is just intermission. This is our mantra, and it is boldly stated on our marquee for all to see.

When we emerge from this quarantine, our community will need the joy of human expression more than ever, and we will be here to welcome you. The RRCA is built around community, and we believe that congregating to celebrate arts and culture is integral to social well-being. We are the premier regional center for unparalleled performing arts education and programming that instructs, inspires and enriches Monroe County and the surrounding communities.

The RRCA's story is one of perseverance - we have weathered many challenges over three decades, but never have we witnessed anything so devastating to our arts community than COVID-19. The RRCA is a registered 501(c)3 non-profit entity that does NOT receive any funds from city/county/state/or federal taxes, bonds or millages. We rely solely on donations from small businesses, foundations, estates and trusts, and individuals like you.

For us to continue to bring you the high-quality performances and arts education you have come to expect from us, we need your help.

We ask you to make a commitment to us in the form of a donation or the purchase of tickets for a future performance. This summer, please consider buying a 2020-21 season subscription. We will be announcing the season soon and are excited to present it to you.

We can't wait to welcome audiences back to our Art Deco theatre as soon as it's safe to reopen, but for now we are faithfully planning for when we can. We are evermore steadfast, inspired, and uplifted by the vivid memories of our participating audiences. Using these memories as inspiration, we remain active and persistent in our efforts to move forward and to program a robust 2020-2021 Marquee Season.

Meanwhile, you are in our hearts and thoughts. We continue to send our warmest wishes for enduring peace, positivity, safety and good health. We encourage you to keep your spirits lifted by enjoying the arts remotely through film, dance, and music.

We appreciate you partnering with us at the River Raisin Centre for the Arts to continue playing a dynamic role in the wellbeing of the Monroe community.
