From the Director

The biggest thanks for this production goes to Elizabeth Upham McWebb who made all these stories possible. I first became acquainted with Aunt Bett when my children were small, and she told stories to the children at church. I went to Aunt Bett eleven years ago with the request that we bring some of her stories to life. We even added a new story that was not in any of her books. I hope you enjoy the retelling of the Little Brown Bear stories as much as we have enjoyed working on them and bringing them to life for you. I wanted another generation of Monroe's children to fall in love with Aunt Bett and her stories. Welcome to the world of make-believe!

The Adventures of Little Brown Bear is set in and around Monroe. Present Day.
